

On September 15, Engineers' Day is celebrated consistently every year in NIST remembering the birthday of one of the best engineers in India so far and an extraordinary person Sir Mokshagundam Visvesayya, famously known as Sir MV. Year 2018 will check the 50th commemoration of the Engineers Day in India and 157th birth commemoration of Sir Mokshagundam Visvesayya. Sir MV was globally well known for his splendor and his extraordinary accomplishment in saddling water assets in India. This is additionally essential to realize that everywhere throughout the world architects' day is commended on ious dates.

Engineers are the experts who configuration, manufacture and test the development, crude materials and procedure of the task; they additionally consider the confinements forced by the direction, achievability, security and cost of the venture. Designers assume an exceptionally critical part in each stroll of our lives. They change over the hypothetical information of fundamental sciences into real items and hence make our lives simple. Specialists have adaptable personalities and help in filling the hole between science, innovation and the group. Engineers in India contribute extraordinarily to the country's innovative and industrial development.

